RESPECT FOR RIGHTFUL AUTHORITY

(World's Temperance Sunday)

LESSON TEXT—Mark 12:13-17; Rom. 13:1-14; I Peter 2:13-17.

GOLDEN TEXT—Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Why We Have Laws.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Why We Have Laws.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Obeying the Law.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Making Effective the Will of the Community.

Though our citizenship is in heaven, we have obligation to the government under which we live.

I. Obligation to Pay Tribute (Mark 12:13-17).

This teaching concerning the tribute money came in answer to the question put to Jesus by representatives of the Pharisees and Herod. They would gladly have killed him, but they feared the people. Their only hope was to discredit him among the people.

1. Their question (v. 14).

Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not? The Pharisees contended that since God was the real king of Israel, it was not obligatory—yea, even sinful—to pay taxes to a heathen king. The Herodians were supporters of Herod. With flattery on their lips, they put this subtle question. For Christ to have answered "yes" would have discredited Him with the people, and to have said "no" would have made Him liable to arrest as an enemy of the government.

2. Jesus' reply (vv. 15-17).

He requested a coin to be brought and inquired as to whose image and superscription it bore, declaring that those who accept the coin of Caesar should pay taxes to Caesar. Thus the Lord escapes their trap and inculcates a principle which applies to all time and conditions as to the Christian's responsibility to civil government.

II. The Christian's Obligation to the State (Rom. 13:1-7).

The believer is a citizen as well as a Christian.

1. Obedience to rulers (vv. 1-4).

This obligation is upon all Christians. Civil government is ordained of God, and rulers are His representatives. To refuse obedience to civil authority is to resist God. This does not mean that a Christian at the behest of the state should do that which is inherently wrong. The same is true of the child in its responsibility to its parents. While obedience to parents is the will of God for children, this does not imply that the child is under obligation to do that which is morally wrong, at the command of the parents. Submission to authority is the law of the believer's life.

2. The spirit in which the Christian renders obedience to rulers (v. 5).

He should regard it as his obligation because it is morally right.

3. Methods of expressing this obedience (vv. 6, 7).

(1) In the payment of personal and property taxes. The citizen who enjoys the benefits of government is morally bound to support it.

(2) Payment of duty upon merchandise, and license fees. The business exchange between nations must be regulated. For such regulations, expense is incurred, for which benefit the citizen should pay.

(3) Veneration for magistrates—"Fear to whom fear."

Those who have the fear of God in their hearts will venerate their rulers, God's representatives.

(4) "Honor to whom honor." Civil officers should be honored because of the ministry they perform.

III. The Spirit of Loyalty to Authority (I Pet. 2:13-17).

The loyalty of the Christian to right authority should be glad and free. The Christian recognizes the necessity of social order, and will graciously submit to the authority of rulers and faithfully perform his obligation as a citizen, not through cringing fear, but as the Lord's free man, for the Lord's sake. By means of this free submission as God's servant, he puts to silence the ignorance of foolish men (vv. 15, 16).

1. Honor all men (v. 17).

He will see in every man the image of God and therefore give honor to him. A Christian will attend to the proprieties of life among all classes and in all relations.

(2) Love the brotherhood (v. 17). The Christian has a peculiar love for those who are of the same household.

(3) Fear God (v. 17). This is filial, reverential fear.

(4) Honor the king (v. 17). This had a peculiar significance, for in all probability the wicked Nero was then the reigning monarch.

Life Is Like That

"Take your needle, my child, and work at your pattern. It will come out a rose by-and-by." Life is like that. One stitch at a time taken patiently, and the pattern will come out all right like the embroidery.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Trained Soul Gains Victory

A trained soul gains the victory, and even when seemingly defeated makes glorious the work of God.—Rev. Floyd W. Tompkins.

Job Work A Specialty

VERA

On Sunday, Oct. 27th the Harvey and Woodson families held a family reunion at the old home of the late Thomas Harvey and to celebrate the 62 birthday of James W. Harvey. The family and friends from far and near came with their nice baskets and the dinner was served on the lawn. The table was ladened with ham, chicken, pies, cakes, pickles, lemonade and coffee. All seemed to enjoy the day, talking over old times, the only sad part of the occasion was there were so many vacant chairs, all three of the dear old people having passed away since the last reunion. Three of the grandchildren were absent, they were: Thomas Harvey Morris and family, of Richmond; Thomas Harvey and family, of Detroit, Mich, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Waters, of Baltimore.

Those present were: John Harvey, of Lynchburg, the last one of the Harvey brothers all nine of the others having passed away; James W. Harvey and family, of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Harvey, of Roanoke; Mr. Tom Harvey and family of Appomattox; Mrs. Helen Welch, of Appomattox; Mrs. Eva Haden and daughter, Betty Jane, of Appomattox; Mr. and Mrs. James Moses, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Jamerson, all of Appomattox; Mr. Norville Woodson and family, of Richmond; Mrs. Cleveland Woodson, Mr. Lester Harvey, Miss Frankie McKinney, Mr. Tyler Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lewis and Mr. Wilks. They all seemed to enjoy the day and went away wishing Jim many more happy birthdays.

CHESTNUT GROVE

We have had a nice rain and many farmers have begun to fallow for the coming crop.

Some people from North Carolina have purchased the late C. O. Forbes estate and are going to make this their home. We wish our new friends much success in their new home.

Mr. Fred Cole and family also Mr. Calvin Morris visited friends near Staunton River Sunday. They reported a very fine crop of corn, but badly damaged by high water. They also visited the Bruce Farm.

The Chestnut Grove School went to Hampden Sidney on a picnic the past Saturday. They had a fine trip with lots to eat.

Mr. Otis O'Brien and Mrs. W. L. Pettus went Monday to visit friends in Richmond hospital, we hope they will soon be up again.

Mr. L. N. O'Brien and family visited Mr. Bob Woolridge Sunday.

Mr. Billy Stanley died Sunday and will be buried at his home near Toga. He is survived by several children.

Mrs. W. B. Forbes has this Post Office in charge since the death of her husband.

Mrs. R. T. Morris went to a hospital in Lynchburg to have her tonsils removed. We hope her a speedy recovery.

Rev. E. F. Burnett held services here yesterday with a fine sermon.

Miss Virgie Cole was guest of Mr. W. N. Morris and family the past week.

A great number of people from here attended the Appomattox Fair. It was very good Mr. Repass from here won the blue ribbon on a fine horse. The children from here that attend Curdsville High School are very busy preparing for the county fair which will be held Thursday and Friday, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1. There will be no admission as usual so everybody is invited.

NEW CRAFT WILL CRAWL ON RIVER

Caterpillar Tracks Drag Vessel Through Shallows.

St. Louis.—Secrets of a new kind of boat that has power to move on dry land like a war-time tank were revealed here.

Its motive power is a pair of caterpillar tractor tracks, that run beneath the bottom of the vessel. It will not be set to climbing banks, unless the pilot falls asleep, because the bracing of the hull is made for water, and would be unlikely to support the weight on land. It is a towboat designed for navigating in two feet of water and meeting some of the problems of American river transportation.

The moving tracks run one under each side of a nearly flat bottom, and each one has its own power plant. The craft are rudderless, for they steer by the tracks like land tanks, and turn around in their own lengths. Their speed is eight to nine miles an hour and six miles with a tow.

The tracks are endless belts of flexible steel, that rise above water level to re-enter the boat through tunnels running the length of the hull on each side. Automatic doors close the ends of the tunnel, except to the moving tracks.

Like duck feet, these new fashioned boat pedals have to be webbed to grip the water. The webs are flat steel plates, two feet wide and a foot deep fastened to the tracks so as to extend vertically downward into the water.

The tracks are driven by electricity generated by Diesel engines. Claim is made that three gallons of oil runs the boat an hour.

Even if they never begin taking to the highways alongside the river, the new towboats are designed for a revolution in waterway freight transportation. This revolution is to imitate railroad freight methods in order to recover for the rivers some of the freight hauling prestige that they lost to land lines.

The towboats are made to haul long lines of barges. The analogy does not end there. The barges too, like railroad box cars, although their capacities equal three to five standard freight cars. They couple so that they will turn about sharp bends without losing their alignment.

Small towboats are designed to do switch engine duty at various ports. It is claimed that a "switch engine" boat can hook a barge to the main tow without stopping the procession.

Impenetrable Vault to Hold England's Gold

London.—An army of men who have been working for years under the strictest oaths of secrecy are now completing the new vaults for the Bank of England. They have transformed them into a veritable fortress of steel and stone, a $25,000,000 castle which will be able to defy any attack even from the air. Bombs will be useless and underground tunnels will meet with impenetrable barriers.

As for attempts on the ground, engineers estimate it would take weeks of hard work with dynamite and oxyacetylene torches even to damage the huge steel doors which lead to the vaults.

Some of the vaults, buried deep in the ground are now finished and they embody the safe-builders' most perfect designs, and the most modern type of reinforced concrete and steel.

Concrete walls seven feet thick run around the vaults. Inside the walls are steel grills built into slabs of concrete and passages where armed guards will patrol when the vaults are full of bullion. The vault doors are solid steel and weigh 12 tons each.

And though they are so delicately balanced on their hinges that a child could swing them open, once they are locked they are strong enough to withstand the force of tons of dynamite.

Honeycombed in the maze of stone and steel will be scores of alarms and bells, to shrill out a warning as soon as any intruder enters.

The bank has its own water supply, electricity plant, and army of guardsmen, and in case of attack—by revolutionary forces, for example—could withstand siege indefinitely.

Ship Sunk 30 Years Ago Being Washed Ashore

Havana, Cuba.—Thirty years ago the Ward line steamship Alexandria burned and sank near Guanabo beach, several miles from Havana. Action of the waves has recently washed the wreck near the shore where it has been identified by a member of the crew who escaped, badly burned, and who since has made a living as a fisherman at Boca Ciego. The hull, masts and funnels of the ship can be clearly seen against the white sands at the bottom of the bay.

Run-Down

"About seven years ago, I was all run-down, worn-out and never felt good," says Mrs. Harry Cantrell, of Cape Girardeau, Mo. "A chair would be more welcome any time than my work.

"I was so tired when I would arise in the morning. Instead of being rested, I felt terrible.

"At last, mother told me to take Cardui, and I did. After the first bottle, I could tell a difference, and when I had taken five bottles the tired feeling was all gone. I felt like a different person, thanks to Cardui. I hope that other mothers will try Cardui. I have been wonderfully benefited by it."

LeRoy—Carwile

A wedding of interest took place at the Baptist church at Pamplin Saturday morning at ten o'clock, when Miss Grace Carwile, the lovely and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Daniel Carwile, became the bride of Mr. Henry LeRoy, of Elizabeth City, N. C. Rev. R. E. Brickhouse, a former pastor, officiating.

The church was decorated in ferns, palms and Cathedral candles with yellow crysanthemums.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Edwina Montgomery wearing brown satinback crepe carrying a huge corsage of pink rose buds. The bride wore lovely brown satin crepe with accessories to match, carrying brides roses. Mr. LeRoy had as best man, Mr. Lee, of Elizabeth City. Miss Kate Franklin played the wedding march accompanied by Miss Mary Lizzie Booker on the violin. A reception was given the bridal party on Friday night at the home of the bride.

After an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy will make their home at Elizabeth City.

The out of town guests included many friends and relatives from a distance.

To this young couple we extend our best wishes.

Mayor's Court

On Monday Mayor Brown had several of the Fair visitors before him:

Sidney Spradlin charged with drunkenness, fined $5 and cost.

Garland Falwell, charged with drunkenness and profane language, fined $25 in each of two cases and $10 in each of two cases and cost—an appeal was noted in all four cases.

Annie Jones, charged with insulting remarks to white lady fined $2.50 and cost.

After adjournment of his court the crowd repaired to the court green, where Joe Ferguson and Jim Jones engaged in a fight. Several by-standers engaged in the melee and Miff Davidson broke a stick on the ball head of the darkey.

Liberty Baptist Church

Sunday, November 10th, has been designated "Loyalty Day" in Liberty Church. The purpose of this special day is to test the loyalty of every member by asking him to come to the 11:00 o'clock service and immediately thereafter to make a pledge to the 1930 budgets of the church. Preparatory to that day, the pastor will speak on the following themes:

Sunday, Oct. 27th, at 11 a. m., "What Right Has the Church to Ask Its Constituency For Financial Support."

At 8 p. m. a pageant entitled "I Am A Dollar" will be presented by ten young people.

Subject for Sunday, Nov. 3rd at 11 a.m., "The Scriptual Basis for Church Finance". This service will be followed by a business meeting when the 1930 budgets of the church will be presented.

Subject for Sunday, Nov.10, "The Bible Measure of Individual Giving".

Previous to this service eight booths will have been arranged and every member will be asked to go and make his pledge. Liberty Church has always lead the churches of the association both in progressive ideas and in the matter of giving. It is hoped that it will not be necessary to make a house to house canvass this year and if every member will come out "Loyalty Day", Nov. 10th, and make his or her pledge it will not then be necessary to make the canvass.

Mann—Chernault

Samuel Ernest Chernault, of Spout Spring, Va., and Willie Louise Mann, of Appomattox, were united in marriage at the Baptist Parsonage here Tuesday, Oct. 22nd, at 10:30 a.m.

The bride is the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Mann, of this village and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Chernault, of Spout Spring, Va. The groom is employed by the N. and W. Ry. and they will make their home near this place.

Kind Expressions On Billy Sunday

[By Maggie M. Goodwin]

There are souls to save in the country Billy,
Like those you meet in town,
Who would be pleased to hear you preach,
And take you all around.

When you ascend to the pulpit,
The Bible to relate and unravel,
The best way on others to impress it,
Is for you that same road travel.

Wherever you are, wherever you go,
Wherever you chance to roam,
All you come in contact with,
Are seeking for a heavenly home.

In regard to preaching to the city population,
We have not the slightest objection,
But feel that you might sometimes arrange,
To come in our direction.

Your plans for the city are two years in advance,
Do you feel that you are serving us right,
To leave the people of the country deserted,
And to the city you take your flight.

If preaching then be your calling,
And for money you do not care,
Just go out into the wilderness,
And leave your sermons there.

You will find the people there,
Though the trees be thick and tall.
Yes go out into the by ways,
And preach to one and all,

For God has said where two or three,
Are gathered in His name,
That He would be in the midst of them,
To bless them just the same.

Just why you do not preach for us,
Your reasons we do not know,
You seem to be a young and active man,
And forever on the go.

May God accompany you every day,
To keep you in the narrow way,
And assist you many more souls to find,
Whether they be deaf or dumb or blind.

Many are in the cemetery Billy,
At rest beneath the sod,
Who gladly would have had your aid,
To help them on to God.

Though pleasures in the country are not many,
And the hotels are farther apart,
We trust you are not for pleasures alone,
But one after God's own heart.

Many compliments be to you Billy
For the kindness that you show,
And trust that you will successful be,
Wherever you chance to go.

The number of souls you wished to save,
Is more than tongues can tell,
But since the election papers state,
You wish them placed in hell

No limit to reflections we cast on others,
No faults can we find of our own,
But whatever we express on the character of brothers,
We shall reap what-so-ever we have sown.

I wish for some power that God could give us,
To see our selves like other folk see us,
It would from many a power free us,
From strange and foolish notions.

What is your motive for changing so,
Has God forbidden you above,
Or political news taken possession of you,
Instead of God's word of love.

It is to be hoped that you will refrain,
From the language you recently expressed,
By those to whom you preach God's word,
And the people who liked you best.

For the time may swiftly arrive Billy,
That you will regret some things you've said,
When robed in your very best attire,
To be numbered with the dead.

I pray that you will change your mind,
Before it shall be too late,
When you stand before the judgment bar,
To meet with your awful fate.

Time flies quickly, the end may be near,
When death our souls will remove from here,
To leave some soul we have cherished here on earth,
And meet with some others who have completed their work.

So don't ever neglect your maker,
Nor be ashamed of whatever you do,
Or in that great day of judgment,
He will be ashamed of you.

Be assured, I'm not speaking in language strong,
But in a christianly way to help you along,
To remember the things you related in the past,
Will be in the memory of your friends while time here lasts.

For the faults of our neighbors with freedom we blame,
Though we tax not ourselves, still we practice the same.
Whenever we commit another sin,
Let our own conscience look within.

May God in Heaven reward you Billy,
For the souls you attempted to save,
When you cross over Jordan's river,
To rest at home in the shade.

So kindly repent and on Jesus repose,
Or the door of mercy upon you close,
Do not retard your good work for a moment,
Confess your own sins and be willing to own it.

And when from earth you have passed away,
And time shall be no more,
May you have that everlasting peace,
That will make your calling sure.

SURE! WE DO JOB WORK
